Mr Bennett
Bark Survivor

O man she cried have pitty for me
O dont fain to utter the truth
If anything wrong has happen to Jack
He is the joy & the pride of my youth
When trembling a sailor you seldom does see
The sailor then told her the end your Jacks gone to heaven he is not gone alone
He is gone with an angellic Friend

Excuse the Writing

From Henry George to Mr Bennett

(The only one with a friend)

No 1

A poor sexton woman were longing to see,
Her husband a sailor return.
As she sat by the window anciously wait,
For some news from a sailor to learn.
When just around the corner a blue jacket came,
Poor woman i saw her turn pale
As she open the door with a sorrowful sigh
To listen to the Mariners tale.

chorus

He is only gone home with a friend
He is only gone home with a friend
He told me to tell you he would see you again
For he only gone home with a friend

I dont understand you she hoddesly cried
For my Jack always come straight to me
A soon as the ship in the dock yard do bay
I never new him for to stay
Then tell me you will tell me what led him astray
Which made him forget his poor wife
Then keep your mind easy the sailor replied
He is free from all care & all strife
